Police identify man injured in North Laurel shooting

Drugs and cash located at scene

Howard County police are identifying the victim in a non-fatal shooting in North Laurel June 25. Alexander Sanders, 23, of Bowie, suffered a gunshot wound to the leg and is currently in stable condition.

Police were called to the 9800 block of Whiskey Run at approximately 9:07 p.m. for a report that a subject had been shot. Responding officers located Sanders, who was transported to the University of Maryland Shock Trauma Center.

Investigators found a large quantity of drugs and cash at the scene. They do not believe this was a random incident.

Detectives are asking anyone who may have information to contact police at 410-313-STOP or HCPDcrimetips@howardcountymd.gov. There is no suspect information available at this time. The investigation is ongoing.
